Dear Friends

I used to dread Lent, but these days I look forward to it. It is a blessing to be given a season to draw closer to the Lord and develop our spiritual lives. For me, as a priest, the best Lents are those when I have been aware of the community of faith growing closer to the Lord – a corporate development of the spiritual life.

It is in this hope that we have put together the programme for Lent 2025. Our theme is God's mercy. It is an important theme. Lent is a season of penitence, when we confess our sins. The Christian understanding of repentance is inextricably bound up with our understanding of God's mercy. We believe in a merciful God, who is always ready to welcome us back to his fold with open arms. Just read the parable of the prodigal son in Luke 15! We cannot speak of human sin without also speaking of divine mercy.

I particularly commend to you our two 'headline' events this Lent: the Devotional Tour of the National Gallery on 11^h March, and our Celebration of Healing and Reconciliation on 23rd March. They are each being led by outstanding priests. Fr Peter Anthony combines a serious intellect with a delightfulness of touch; his tour will be both insightful and entertaining. The Revd Laura Darrall is an immensely gifted and personable communicator, and her deep faith and reliance on God's grace will be an enormous blessing to us.

With my love and prayers for a good and holy Lent
Fr Daniel

ST. DAVID (1 MARCH)

'Be Joyful. Keep the Faith. Do the little things that you have heard and seen me do.'

'Gwnewch y pethau bychain mewn bywyd.'

Saint David, or Dewi Sant, was born in 6th century Wales, with one legend telling of his mother, St Non, giving birth to him on a clifftop in Pembrokeshire during a storm. However, the exact date of his birth is unknown, and he was either born in Caerfai, Dyfed or Ceredigion. He was a native Welsh Christian and later became the Bishop of Minevia. He was dedicated to God, spreading the Christian faith and his life was marked by simplicity, devotion, and deep faith, which embodied key biblical teachings.

David emphasized living simply, prioritizing prayer, service, and devotion over wealth or status. He was said to have lived on a diet of leeks and water as a sign of his commitment to humility.

He founded many monastic communities and churches across Wales, Brittany, and South West England, including the community at Glyn Rhosyn (now St David's Cathedral).

His life was a model of Christ's call to humility: "The greatest among you will be your servant. All who exalt themselves will be humbled, and all who humble themselves will be exalted." (Matthew 23:11-12). David preached extensively throughout Wales, fulfilling the Great Commission: "Go and make disciples of all nations" (Matthew 28:19-20). His teachings focused on practical faith, urging people to live out their beliefs in daily actions, in the same way as the apostle Paul encouraged believers to "Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ" (1 Corinthians 11:1).

Throughout his life, Saint David performed miracles. He is said to have brought a dead boy back to life by sprinkling the child's face with tears and healed his blind tutor with the sign of the cross. At one point, the ground beneath him rose to form a hill, allowing a larger crowd in Llanddewi Brefi to hear him, and a white dove settled on his shoulder as he preached.

Saint David's well-remembered words came from a sermon he gave before his death: 'Be joyful, keep the faith, and do the little things that you have heard and seen me do'. Though the exact date is uncertain, David is said to have died on 1st March 589. He was buried at the site of Saint David's Cathedral and during the Middle Ages his shrine was a place of pilgrimage. After his death, his holiness and miracles led to his veneration as a saint. In the 12th Century, Pope Callixtus II canonised him, and by this time, more than 60 churches in Wales were dedicated to him.

Saint David's feast day, celebrated on March 1st, honours his virtues of humility, perseverance, and faithfulness. Since the 16th Century, Welsh people have been wearing a leek, which is St. David's personal symbol, or a daffodil, the national symbol of Wales, or both to celebrate St. David's Day!

Saint David's life encourages us to live with humble and quiet devotion, trusting that we encounter God's love and grace in our small, faithful acts. As we celebrate his feast day, let us pray for the strength to follow his example, doing the little things with great love, knowing that God works miracles through our simple acts of faith.

Happy St. David's Day! ~ Dydd Gŵyl Dewi Hapus!

The beginning of Lent

Ash Wednesday is the first day of Lent. It is a day of fasting and abstinence, as we begin this season of penitence and self-denial.

At the Eucharist of Ash Wednesday, ashes are blessed, and we are 'ashed' as a reminder of our mortality and our need of God's mercy.

Climate Justice & Discipleship

Following Jesus, responding to the climate and ecological emergency, and renewing our faith and discipleship aren't rival projects. They may turn out to be the same thing. For Lent 2025, everyone across the Diocese of London is invited to reflect deeply on five significant moments in Jesus' life and ministry. As we take this journey together, how might we encounter Christ through creation, pursue justice from within, and convert our fearful reactions into a loving response?

Lent Appeal 2025: Climate Justice

Since 1998, the Diocese of London has been linked with the Anglican churches in Angola and Mozambique through ALMA (Angola London Mozambique Association). In recent years these two African countries have been greatly affected by the impact of climate change. This Lent we are invited to think about Climate Justice, the challenges our partners face every day and their responses to them. Examples of how climate change has affected these two countries include:

- † Cyclones Chido (2024) and Dikeledi (2025) devastated Cabo Delgado and Nampula provinces in northern Mozambique and destroyed many buildings (homes, churches and schools), which need to be rebuilt.
- † Serious coastal erosion in the Diocese of Inhambane, Mozambique, is being addressed by the Green Anglicans' mangrove replanting initiatives to protect the coast. The Green Anglicans are also engaged in urban tree planting, litter collection, and clearing culverts in cities and beaches.
- † The population in southern Angola is suffering the worst drought in 40 years and the consequential poor harvests, as well as the aftereffects of the El Niño climate phenomenon. In response, the Church is providing nutrition education for families and caregivers of children and also emergency aid to those displaced by drought and hunger.

Money raised in the Lent Appeal will be split between the Cyclone emergency response in Nampula (60%), the Green Anglican projects in Inhambane (10%) and drought relief in Southern Angola (30%).

Martyn Caswell

St Paul's Church has been supporting the charity All People All Places (APAP) for some time by providing sandwiches for their Day Centre in Pymmes Park on Tuesdays each week (as described in the article in the October 2024 magazine written by Rhiannon Sheldon) and also by donating money raised by 'Carols on The Green' each year.

All People All Places

APAP's mission is to break cycles of poverty and disadvantage, and to tackle issues of homelessness in Haringey and Enfield by:

- Providing respite to those rough sleeping
- Supporting individuals through and beyond housing crisis
- Preventing people from experiencing the nightmare impact of rough sleeping

As well as running the Day Centre, during the last two years APAP has provided night shelter provision for rough sleepers on a year round basis, not just during the winter months. Of all the clients supported in this way, last year none returned to rough sleeping and the majority were found permanent or temporary accommodation.

Another part of the work of APAP is their support for households facing eviction. (It is a little known fact that 300 London households face eviction every week.) There are many reasons why families might find themselves facing homelessness including the receipt of an eviction order from a landlord, getting into arrears with rent or illegal eviction resulting from harassment by a landlord. Whatever the reason for being threatened with eviction, APAP's casework service can provide support and advice about tenants' rights, information on how to apply for any benefits available to their clients and assistance in finding alternative accommodation.
