Dear Friends

The assisted dying bill is very soon to be debated in Parliament. It is, naturally, a complex and emotive subject. People from both sides of the debate are well-intentioned. Everyone will be united in desiring the alleviation of suffering, while exploring how we can make sure people live well and die well.

Because it is a sensitive issue, I was approaching the writing of this month's letter with some trepidation. I was very glad, therefore, to read Bishop Sarah's letter to the clergy of the Diocese. In it, she expresses my own views on this issue with much more clarity and expertise than I could. I commend this letter to you. It is available on the diocesan website at www.london.anglican.org. If you are not online and would like to read it, please contact Emily in the Parish Office, who will arrange a hard copy for you.

This neatly brings me to another current debate: the reform of the House of Lords. The current proposals concern only hereditary peers, but there are many who argue that the presence of twenty-five of the Church of England's bishops is antiquated and undemocratic, particularly given the secularisation of society over recent decades.

I strongly believe that the bishops bring something unique to the Lords. They come to the table without party allegiance, and also without any ambition to be there. They have not fought an election campaign, nor have they expected to be there as a birth-right. They have no political axe to grind. No one, as far as I am aware, seeks ordination in the hope that they will find themselves one day on the House of Lords!

They are, by name, the Lords Spiritual. And, while the make-up of the Lords may not be perfect, the bishops provide a spiritual conscience to our parliamentary processes which comes not only from their deep Christian faith, but also from the Church of England's vocation to be a church not just for those who subscribe to the Christian faith, but for every single person in our nation. The bishops do not sit in the Lords to represent the Church's interests. Instead they are there, as the servants of the servants of God, to represent all the people of this land. If they are to have any bias it is to be God's bias for the poor, the vulnerable and the voiceless.

I thank God they are there. Please pray for Sarah our Bishop, for all the Lords Spiritual, and for all those who are currently debating important matters of life and death. May God's Holy Spirit guide them.

With my love and prayers

Fr Daniel

FOODBANK COLLECTION POINT

We continue to have our food collection point in the church porch throughout the year so that food is available for local people living in food poverty to help themselves to six items per visit. Any surplus food is shared between the North Enfield Foodbank and distribution schemes run by other local churches.

We are always very grateful for all donations, Some of the things that are currently needed are tinned foodstuffs (vegetarian meals, meat, fish, fruit, vegetables, tomatoes, pasta sauce, rice pudding and custard), long life milk, rice, noodles, coffee, hot chocolate, shampoo, toilet paper, nappies and washing powder.

ST CATHERINE OF ALEXANDRIA

For my second saint of the month, I have chosen another Catherine – this time Catherine of Alexandria. St Catherine was a Fourth Century martyr, and may have lived c290AD – c310AD. I say ‘may have lived’ as there is very little evidence for her actual existence, but her legend is a very famous one and so she has captured the imagination down through the ages.

Legend has it that Catherine was born to a wealthy family in Alexandria, Egypt. She was converted to Christianity around the age of fourteen after receiving a vision of the Virgin and child Jesus. She then denounced the Roman Emperor Maxentius for his persecution of Christians.

Maxentius sent fifty philosophers to reason with her, but they were confounded by arguments, many apparently converting to Christianity themselves. Maxentius had them executed, and then tried to bribe Catherine into silence with the offer of a royal marriage. She refused, stating that she was married to Christ (as Catherine of Siena was to do some 1000 years later). Maxentius therefore had her imprisoned. Catherine refused to remain silent and set about converting the imperial household, thus enraging Maxentius. He had all the converts executed and prepared a spiked wheel on which to execute Catherine. The wheel burst with bolts of lightning flying from it and Catherine was unharmed. She was subsequently killed by beheading.

All the traditions state that angels transported Catherine’s body to Mount Sinai, and the emperor Justinian founded a monastery there in 527AD. It has been dedicated to St Catherine since the eighth or ninth century, and remains there today.

The legend of St Catherine flourished in the Middle Ages, and there are countless works of art and stained-glass windows dedicated to her, many of which feature the wheel on which she was martyred. In England, her legend is most associated with the common firework we see in this month of November – the Catherine wheel. Her feast day is commemorated in Common Worship on 25 November. Her association with learning and with apologetics makes her the patron saint for philosophers, preachers and librarians, along with craftspeople that work with a wheel (potters, spinners etc.)

The poppy is a well-known and well-established symbol that carries a wealth of history and meaning with it. It is a symbol of both Remembrance and also hope for a peaceful future.

Poppies are available at the back of church until our Act of Remembrance during the 10.30 Eucharist on Sunday 10th November. There will be a collection box next to the poppies for donations towards the important work of the Royal British Legion, which supports ex-service personnel and their families.

THE ORIGIN OF REMEMBRANCE DAY

THE FIRST TWO MINUTE SILENCE IN LONDON ON 11TH NOVEMBER 1919

~ Extract from Manchester Guardian, 12th November 1919. ~

The first stroke of eleven produced a magical effect.

The tram cars glided into stillness, motors ceased to cough and fume, and stopped dead, and the mighty-limbed dray horses hunched back upon their loads and stopped also, seeming to do it of their own volition.

Someone took off his hat, and with a nervous hesitancy the rest of the men bowed their heads also. Here and there an old soldier could be detected slipping unconsciously into the posture of 'attention'. An elderly woman, not far away, wiped her eyes, and the man beside her looked white and stern. Everyone stood very still. . . The hush deepened. It had spread over the whole city and become so pronounced as to impress one with a sense of audibility. It was a silence which was almost pain . . . And the spirit of memory brooded over it all.

HARVEST FESTIVAL 2024

We had a full day of celebrations at our Harvest Festival on Sunday, 6th October.

The day began with an All-Together Service during which we thanked God for all his gifts, including the many donations of food and toiletries that were generously given for the North Enfield Foodbank.

The service was enlivened by Fr Pete’s talk on finding God in the soil and by many younger church members leading the prayers and readings and playing in a band that accompanied the hymns.

We were delighted that the MP for Edmonton and Winchmore Hill, Kate Osamor, could join us at the service.

After the service, the first 'Great Snail Racing Tournament' took place in the Vicarage garden. As can be seen in the photo, a large crowd of excited spectators enjoyed watching the (rather slow) progress of the snails.

After the service there was also a popular produce stall selling home made jam, marmalade, mince meat and lavender bags. Proceeds from the Snail Race and produce stall went to The Children's Society, our annual charity.

After the snail racing, a large cross-section on our church family sat down to a Harvest Roast organised by the Charity Committee. It was a traditional Sunday lunch with roast beef, Yorkshire puddings and all the trimmings, followed by fruit crumbles, custard and cookies. Our thanks go to Julian and his huge portable oven for, once again, cooking the meat to perfection.

The Harvest Roast, Snail Race and Produce Stall raised an amazing £738.46 for The Children's Society!

A Pilgrimage to Norfolk

Finding God
in the liminal landscapes and medieval churches of North Norfolk

www.spwh.org/pilgrimage

Our Mothers' Union had a very interesting meeting on Thursday 24th October. Members were invited to bring along 'an object with the story'. Not knowing what to expect, we were delighted with the eclectic range of items that appeared on the day and the fascinating stories associated with them.

The objects included a portrait by the Irish artist Edith Oene Somerville, an embossed brass platter, a pack of playing cards enjoyed across generations, a 'Game for a Laugh' trophy with a very funny backstory, a 19th Century silver christening cup from Hong Kong, a teddy bear with a poignant story, a medieval leper's bell, an old Sharps toffee tin used by a member's mother to hold hair clips, a child's handwritten prayer written after his grandmother's death and a collection of very old parish magazines (some over 40 years old and in which familiar names could be found).

After sharing their memories, members had a chance to have a closer look at all of the items that had been brought along. It was a truly memorable afternoon.

Other MU events in October included the commissioning of our next London Diocesan President, Pauline McCalla, on 5th October at St Andrew's by the Wardrobe by the Bishop of London. Our branch was represented by Chris Holder. Pauline will take over from Sue Johnson in January 2025.

Our vicar was the speaker at the Mothers' Union Prayer Hour in St Paul's Cathedral on 8th October. Fr Daniel took as his theme 'Praying with John Betjeman' and he spoke about Betjeman's journey of faith and his life long love of the Church of England, its traditions and liturgies. The talk was illustrated with verses from Betjeman's poems.

The MU Harvest Lunch took place on 14th October and was greatly enjoyed by all of the guests.

Our thanks go to the catering team that arranges these lunches four times a year.
